

January, 2010

Dear Faculty, Staff, Parents and Friends
of Our Lady of the Elms High School,

What: The Second Ever, “Lack of Talent Show”

When: Friday, February 19, 7:00 pm

Where: The Ann Amer Brennan Theater

Why: The chance of a lifetime

We need your talent!

This is your opportunity to make the students of O.L.E. laugh, cry, be amazed or embarrassed by your wit, charm, and skill.

We are searching for 12–15 acts of 3–10 minutes duration. The idea is the entertainment of our students. We need participants who can play an instrument, sing, dance or perform. Serious or comedy. Solos, duets or groups. Skits and impersonations are welcomed.

This event is sponsored by the Class of 2011 with proceeds to benefit their class treasury.

Please call Larry Furman with the following info essentials by Sunday, January 31 with:

- Name or description of act
- Type of act (music, skit, comedy, etc)
- Approximate length
- Anticipated needs (props, microphones, etc)

Rally your friends, dust off those talents and muster your courage. Let’s show our students what entertainment can be! Everyone is good at something...we need YOU!

It’s gonna be great!

Sincerely,

Larry Furman
